Berkowits Can Smoothen Your Skin & Life with Cutting Edge Laser Hair Removal Solutions

Laser hair removal is a non-invasive procedure, by which unwanted hair are removed from any part of the body by utilizing laser. The laser parameters are carefully defined by studying the anatomy of the hair follicles and precisely matching the laser light and pulse duration to the follicle size, depth and location to inhibit the re-growth of the hair. Laser hair removal is performed by a specially - trained laser technician or a doctor, who directs the light of a long pulsed laser onto the skin. Since other hair will enter their growth cycle at different times, several sessions are necessary to destroy all the follicles in a treatment area.

Suitable for all

Both men and women seek laser hair removal to get unwanted hair removed. Hair removal is commonly done on the hairline, eyebrow, top of the nose, side burn, upper & lower lip, chin, ear lobe, face, neck, nape, shoulders, back,, underarm, abdomen, buttocks, pubic area, bikini lines, thighs, breast, arms, legs, hands, and toes.

Lasting reduction

The US: FDA has approved the process as permanent reduction which means that one shouldn't expect laser to remove every single hair from an area. Touch up treatments may be required for some, once or twice a year after the initial set of treatments for any new growth the body may develop.
